Fine Apples.

Mr. Wm. Brodbeck of this city has placed us under obligation by present ing us on New Years day with a basketful of very large, fine apples, the product of his young orchard, situated on the road between Oregon and Forest City. On examining the contents of the basket we found eight different kinds of apples, namely: The White Winter Permain, New York Pipin, Ohio Belleflour, Jenitan, Winesap, Rome, Smith Cider and the Stark Apple. Sounder and better apples we have not tasted in this county. There us a fortune in that orchard.
